Barceló Crestline Corporation

In June of 2002, Crestline Capital Corporation, parent company of Crestline Hotels & Resorts, merged with Barceló Corporación Empresarial—parent company of Barceló Hotels & Resorts. After the merger, Crestline Capital Corporation became a wholly owned subsidiary of Barceló Corporación Empresarial and changed its name to Barceló Crestline Corporation. Based in Palma de Mallorca, Spain, Barceló Corporación Empresarial, together with its affiliates, is one of the world's largest hospitality companies. The parent company of Crestline Hotels & Resorts, Barceló Crestline Corporation currently leases 19 limited-service hotels and has significant equity interests in several upscale hotels.

EarthPact

Crestline Hotels & Resorts, Inc. is committed to running sustainable hotels that serve the community's best interest while finding innovative ways to save operational costs. In 2009 Crestline introduced its proprietary green initiative program: EarthPact. This signature sustainable hotels program supports various Brand Standards and sets a new level of consciousness and sustainable 'green' practices for all Crestline Hotels. EarthPact is an expansive sustainability initiative developed by Crestline Hotels & Resorts that is scalable and inclusive across all of the branded and non-branded hotels in our portfolio.

Crestline Hotels & Resorts currently manages 65 hotels, resorts, and conference and convention centers with nearly 14,000 rooms. The company is active in 13 states and the District of Columbia.
